27 <sup>1</sup> General Order No. 76 established a Pilot Project of the Court and the California 28 Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation (“CDCR”), which requires prisoners filing civil rights actions under § 1983 to submit the case-initiating documents to the Court by email through designated CDCR staff.

1           The fourteen-day window has passed, and Plaintiff has failed to respond to the 2 Clerk's notice or have any further communication with the Court. However, in the interest
3 of justice, the Court shall grant Plaintiff an extension of time to resubmit his court-4 initiating documents using the prison email filing procedures at SQSP in accordance with 5 the instructions provided on the Clerk's Notice, Dkt. No. 1 at 1, or show good cause why
6 he should be relieved from General Order No. 76's e-filing requirement by filing a motion 7 for relief. Plaintiff shall respond to this Court order no later than twenty-one (21) days
8 from the date this order is filed.

9           Failure to respond to this order in the time provided will result in the dismissal
10 of this case without prejudice for failure to comply with General Order No. 76.

11           The Clerk shall enclose a complete copy of Docket No. 1, including the complaint 12 and IFP application, with a copy of this order to Plaintiff.
